„REC Filmfestival“ (formerly known as Youth Media Festival Berlin) with it's two contests „REC International Young Film Festival“ for junior film makers aged 16-27 and „REC for Kids“ for kids aged 6-15 is taking place since 1992.

Special highlight at „REC international young film festival“ is the offer of critical reflexion and a professional feedback of the presented clips. This is enabled by expert moderation, discussion with the public and the immediate feedback by the jury in the first place, which consists of prestigious filmmakers, journalists and film critics (in recent years Arpad Bondy, Axel Ranisch and Ulrich Gregor participated, among others). Associated to the screenings various workshops can be attended.

Beside Silver and Golden Clips in the age bands concerned there will be given a Doku-Clip for the best documentary by „Internationales Leipziger Festival für Dokumentar- und Animationsfilm“. In addition the ZIEGLER FILM Produktion will award a traineeship at a film or tv production for the best German-speaking film.

REC-Filmfestival is hosted by nonprofit organisation PUMA e.V. with it's media center Clip, Outreach gGmbH and media competence center „Netti“ in Tempelhof-Schöneberg.
